

We are in the early stages of planning a fall workshop based on the topic: "Healing." Originally, this workshop was limited to those who are either doing healing work or ready to start taking healing classes. However, we have decided to open it up to any student who has an interest in learning about healing. We do plan on limiting the number of people so the groups are small and focused, it won't be a typical workshop atmosphere (If there is one? ?).

The workshop dates will be Thursday, September 25th (arrival day), Fri - Sunday (26th to 28th) - workshop and Monday, the 29th is a departure day.. There will be a new moon on the 21st, so we would like to work, just after the new moon. there is also the fall equinox on the 22nd, so we have some interesting earth energy active at that time we can weave into the workshop sessions.

If you are interested in coming, please respond here or send me a message, if you'd prefer. The cost will be $125 to cover expenses. There is no cost for camping on site and tents and camping supplies will be provided. If you'd rather not camp, you would need to find your own housing arrangements. Holly H has generously reserved a large airbnb in Louisville and has openings if people would like to share the cost of that space with her. Please contact her for more details if you are intersted. We can post locations and hotel and airbnb ideas, if people would like other options.

People will be responsible for their own meals during the workshop. The days sessions will start right after lunch so there will only need to be a dinner break during the sessions.

So, if you respond, 'yes' now, it's not a commitment, we're just trying to get an idea of who might be interested.

Something else to consider is that this workshop is geared towards people doing healing work and most of the sessions will be focused on that aspect, so it may be advanced material, just FYI.

About the Fall Healing Workshop coming September 2025!

Everyone who comes is welcome to join in on all sessions even if you haven't taken healing classes before. We will be offering some sessions that are geared to all levels, so it won't be all advanced work.

It is also possible to get a free healing if you want to volunteer to be a healee!
